

LETTERS FROM TWO STATES

Windham County
BROOKLYN

Effort to Break Out the Roads—Charles Loudon, who suddenly buried in John H. Hargrave's On account of the snowstorm Wednesday of last week, which blocked the roads, Harold Stone, with a pair of horses, assisted the R. D. carrier, Frank Young, the route being partially covered Thursday and Friday. Saturday the whole route was covered.

At Backus Hospital.
Mrs. M. O'Neill left Monday for Norwich to see an eye specialist and now is in Backus hospital receiving treatment.

Philip White of Cleveland, O., is visiting his aunt, Mrs. William Danielson, being called here on account of the illness of his mother, Mrs. Robert White, who is a patient in the Day Kimball hospital.

Mrs. Helen Witter has been visiting in Fall River, and is now in the Charles Loudon.

Charles Loudon, a former Brooklyn boy, died suddenly at his home in Cambridge, Mass. He leaves his wife and two children. He was the son of the late Samuel Loudon.

Burial of John H. Hargrave.
John H. Hargrave, the husband of Mrs. Maud Wood, died suddenly Monday at Utica, N. Y. His body was brought here Thursday and buried in the cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Pond returned Wednesday from a visit in Providence.
Mrs. E. M. Marlor and Mrs. S. L.
Frank were called to West on Sunday on account of the death of their brother-in-law, John H. Hargrave.

Bert Terry has moved into the Luther home in West village.

EAST WOODSTOCK

Quitting Bee Tuesday—Earl Bemis Wins Bride in New York State.

Miss Eunice Hibbard spent last week with her brother Ernest Hibbard and cousin, Mrs. L. H. Lindeman. She has been in Putnam for the past 17 weeks, while her sister, Mrs. Harward, was in the hospital.

The ladies met at the home of Mrs.
Chester May, Tuesday, and three quilted. The proceeds are for the Ladies Aid society.

Earl Bemis and Bride (Caroline D.
Fay) are spending their honeymoon with relatives in town. They were married at Nanuet, N. Y., March 15, and returned Thursday to West on Friday, where the groom is employed on a farm.

Mrs. Charles Myers and daughter returned Tuesday to Elmville, after a visit of a week with J. C. Ames.

Agnes White, is assisting Mrs. Bixby in caring for her sister, who has been ill for several weeks. She is convalescing slowly.

The mail failed to arrive last Wednesday evening, the first time in years.
The roads were badly drifted.

STERLING

Straw-ride to Wauregan—Local Guests at Moosup Whist.

Miss Irene Peck of Providence was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Sweet over the week-end.

Mrs. Bertha Blum and daughter Doris, are spending the week-end with relatives in Pawtucket, R. I.

Miss Mabel Blum and daughter
Doris, are spending the week-end
with relatives in Pawtucket, R. I.

Mr. and Mrs. John Knox attended the funeral of Mrs. John Knox held Wednesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Walter Knox.

Mrs. Clinton Brown of Aponeau, R. I. spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. H. C. Anderson.

About twelve of the young people of this village enjoyed a straw-ride to Wauregan, Tuesday evening.

Quite a number attended the whist and entertainment given in Moosup, Friday evening of last week.

Fred Parker was a Norwich visitor Saturday.

Mrs. W. W. Vaughn spent Sunday with Mrs. George Gibson, of Moosup.

ABINGTON

Grange Confers Degrees—Guests From Mississippi.

Mrs. James Wilbur has been very ill.
The schools closed Friday for one week vacation.

The first and second degrees were conferred on three candidates at the regular meeting of Wolf Den grange Wednesday evening. About twenty members were present. A sleighing party is being planned to attend neighbors' night at Putnam grande on Monday next.

Rev. and Mrs. Frank Fuller recently spent a few days with relatives in Norwich town.

Mrs. Albert Potter is receiving treatment for heart trouble at the Day Kimball hospital.

William Fay has been unable to attend to his duties at the station for several days, being confined to the house with a cold.

Mr. Bennett and daughters, from Mississippi are at Mrs. Brackett's.

POMFRET CENTER

Dr. Joseph C. Hoppin sails for Europe —Grage to Pay Off $200 on Mortgage.

Mrs. Everett E. Brown spent the week-end with her sister in Worcester Mass.

Miss Annie Christy has been visiting her brother in Hartford.

Miss Marjorie Brown is spending her vacation from Mt. Holyoke college with her uncle, E. B. Brown.

Miss McKenna visited Boston recently.

Dr. Joseph Clark Hoppin sailed Friday for Europe on the steamer St.
Louis.

Samuel Aldrich is reported as gaining after an operation for appendicitis at Day Kimball hospital.

Mrs. Seabrook of Boston has been visiting Miss Isabel Rogers.

Mrs. Eleanor Scott and Miss Catharine Rust were members of a sleighing party to Danielson Thursday evening.

Wolf Den grange will pay off $200 in their mortgage April 1st.

WESTMINSTER

Willis Bennett Bound Over to Superior Court—Charles Bennett and Frank Pellett on Probation.

The town hall was crowded Wednesday morning when the Bennett brothers and Frank Pellett were brought to trial before A. Hale Bennett to answer for a few breaks that went on in the vicinity. Willis Bennett was tried first and pleaded guilty to breaking and entering Howard Hoxie's garage, where he stole goods to the value of $10; second count, to breaking and entering Charles Barstow's toolhouse and stealing goods to the value of $10; third count, stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co., new tractors on the state road, goods to the value of $10; fourth count, breaking and entering Martin Bushnell's home, stealing goods to the value of $30. He was found guilty on the four counts and bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from Howard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, breaking and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

Charles Bennett was called next
and charged with stealing from How-
ard Hoxie goods valued at $10; second
count, stealing from Charles Barstow
goods to the value of $10; third count,
stealing from Goodman & Trumbull Co.,
new tractors on the state road, goods
to the value of $10; fourth count, break-
ing and entering Martin Bushnell's home,
stealing goods to the value of $30. He
was found guilty on the four counts and
bound over to the superior court. Bond
was fixed at $200.

his last sermon Sunday. At the close of the morning service last Sunday resolutions on the pastor's resignation were presented to the church by Arthur Williams, the committee appointed on resolutions. The resolutions were passed. They included words of appreciation for the work of the pastor's wife, who has been a faithful worker in all branches of church work, and a great help to the choir as organist and singer during the pastor's ministry here.

ELMVILLE

Mrs. C. H. Pike visited friends in Worcester last week.

Mrs. Ida Place and Miss Nellie Place spent Sunday in Norwich, the guests of Mrs. Place's friend, Mrs.
Church.

R. C. Conklin was in Webster on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Silas Babbitt were guests of local friends Sunday.

Michael Conway of Yantic was a week-end visitor at his home here.

Miss Mildred Davis, Miss Olive Kent and George W. Kent attended birthday party in Danielson, Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kibbe of East Killingly spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Kibbe's parents.

William Hawwell of Plymouth, Mass., and Harold Nye of Centerville, R. I., are at the Hill Crest house.

Charles Keegan and Ralph Rogers spent the week-end in Providence.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Potter entertained B. A. Potter of Providence on Sunday.

Miss Clara West was a week-end visitor in Moosup.

WILSONVILLE

Miss Alice Jack visited friends in Webster a few days the past week.

Miss Alice